

~ Pastor Jason Murray is teaching today ~

Dr. Jason Murray came to Candlelight with his family from Kentucky, where he had finished a doctor of education in theology and apologetics. Back in 1999 he met his wife Karen, who is from Creston, BC, up above Sandpoint. After marrying her, he dragged her around the South for 20-plus years, with a family that's now grown to four teenagers, before being led by God to North Idaho in August 2020. Now that they are here, the Murrays enjoy hiking, sightseeing, camping, guns, a good story, homeschooling, and fellowship with born-again believers. Jason loves driving motorcoaches and buses like some guys like riding motorcycles. Their four amazing teenage children are Iain, Onora, Niall and Mairi. Jason's spiritual gifts include pastoring, teaching, and wisdom, and his life's calling is to help families defend the Faith through all life's seasons.
