Believing in Six 24-hour Days Isn't Important – Debunked!

Within Christendom, many disagree with a literal interpretation of Genesis 1:1–2:3, as it would mean God created the world in six 24-hour days and that the earth is actually young. Many even say this is a non-essential issue, so it shouldn't divide the Body of Christ. In this talk, Frank will challenge and encourage us to understand that our interpretation of Creation significantly impacts the rest of our theology.
